MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Training

SUBJECT : Procedure for Requesting Speakers for the Midcareer Course from the JCS

1. On 1 July 1966 you forwarded a proposed letter for the signature of the Director to Lieutenant General David A. Burchenal advising him that in the future requests for speakers for the Midcareer Courses would be submitted directly to JCS rather than going through DIA. Mr. Bannerman forwarded this proposed letter to the Director's office where it was retyped and addressed to Lieutenant General Goodpastor as Acting Director of the Joint Staff. However, the letter was not signed and we now have a note from Colonel White stating "I'm sure there is no question about JCS cooperation on this. Why don't we just go ahead and make arrangements with Colonel Ramsey or someone when the time comes."

2. Forwarded for your information and action.

Remarks:  Bob: This has been done and redone so many times I'm beginning to think we just can't yet there from here .  I'm sure there is no question about JCS cooperation on this. Why don't we just go ahead and make arrangements with Colonel Ramsey or someone when the time comes.                         LKW
